

2019 Awardees for Research Proposed under Consortium for Medical Marijuana Clinical Outcomes Research

Principal Investigator	University	Title of Proposal	Approved Budget
Borsa, Paul A.	University of Florida	Efficacy of a controlled short-term trial of CBD ingestion on reducing symptomatic response and facilitating recovery after induced muscle injury”	$ 59,057
Bramlett, Helen	University of Miami	Therapeutic dosing of a cannabinoid (CBD) after mild and moderate brain injury for translation to the clinic	$ 71,250
Brown, Joshua	University of Florida	Characterizing community and physician-level factors associated with medical marijuana prescriber registration and patient access	$ 38,191
Cippitelli, Andrea	Florida Atlantic University	Cannabidiol: A potential treatment for migraine-like pain, negative emotion and photophobia	$ 71,250
McManus, Gregory	Florida Gulf Coast University	Rapid identification and quantification of heavy metals and microplastics in CBD oil.	$ 65,643
Sachdeva, Mandip Singh	Florida A&M University	Hyaluronic acid functionalized, Cannabidiol-loaded Mesenchymal Stem Cells (MSC)-Derived Exosomes for Drug Resistant Cancers	$ 71,250
Sagen, Jacqueline	University of Miami	Evaluation of medical marijuana for the treatment of chronic spinal cord injury pain using a rat central neuropathic pain model	$ 71,250
Vaddiparti, Krishna	University of Florida	A feasibility study of real-time monitoring of Posttraumatic Stress Disorder related sleep disturbances and other symptoms among patients on medical marijuana	$ 71,248
Wilkerson, Jenny L.	University of Florida	Marijuana-derived terpenes for the treatment of chemotherapy-induced pain	$ 71,201
Yurasek, Ali M.	University of Florida	The Relationship between State Medical Marijuana Laws, Substance Use and Mental Health Disorder Diagnoses, and Associated Health Care Costs	$ 63,650
Total Funding Amount			$ 653,990